FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kingstone Announces its Addition to Russell 3000® and Russell 2000® Indexes

KINGSTON, N.Y.— June 30, 2025-- Kingstone Companies, Inc. (Nasdaq: KINS) (the "Company" or "Kingstone"), a Northeast regional property and casualty insurance holding company, today announced that it has been added as a member of the broad-market Russell 3000® Index, with automatic inclusion in the small-cap Russell 2000® Index, effective after the U.S. market opens on Monday, June 30, 2025, as part of the 2025 Russell indexes reconstitution.

Meryl Golden, Chief Executive Officer at Kingstone, stated, "The past year has been transformational for Kingstone, and we are pleased to have earned inclusion in the Russell indexes, among the most widely recognized benchmarks for small-cap stocks. This important milestone reflects the strong momentum we are continuing to build, marked by significant growth, top-tier underwriting results, and our ongoing commitment to delivering sustainable long-term value to our shareholders. We believe this inclusion will raise recognition and broaden ownership of Kingstone within the institutional investment community."

The annual reconstitution of the Russell US indexes captures the 4,000 largest US stocks as of Wednesday, April 30, 2025, ranking them by total market capitalization. Membership in the Russell 3000® Index, which remains in place for one year, means automatic inclusion in the large-cap Russell 1000® Index or small-cap Russell 2000® Index as well as the appropriate growth and value style indexes. FTSE Russell determines membership for its Russell indexes primarily by objective, market-capitalization rankings and style attributes.

Russell indexes are widely used by investment managers and institutional investors for index funds and as benchmarks for active investment strategies. According to data as of the end of June 2024, about $10.6 trillion in assets are benchmarked against the Russell US indexes, which belong to FTSE Russell, the global index provider. For more information on the Russell 3000® Index and the Russell indexes reconstitution, go to the "Russell Reconstitution" section on the FTSE Russell website.
